WEDNESDAY.....JULY 28 1886

The withdrawal of Theo. Winters from the Gubernatorial fight must be a relief to Governor Adams.

The crop of silk cocoons this year throughout California is tenfold greater than that of last year.

The New York Mirror announces Edwin Booth's retirement from the stage at the end of this season.

The correspondent of the San Francisco Post has been ruled off the floor of the California Senate Chamber.

One of the most moderate places the wheat crop of California for 1886 at from 1,600,000 to 1,800,000 tons.

The public announcement of the engagement of George Gould, son of Jay Gould, to Edith Kiegdon, a young and beautiful actress, is made by the New York Star.

The total Internal Revenue collections for the year were $116,902,845. Total collections for the previous fiscal year were $112,121,121, showing an increase of $4,481,724.

A week ago Maud S. trotted a quarter of a mile in 31½ seconds, a 2:06 gait. Yesterday she made a quarter in 30½ seconds, a 2:02 gait. Bonner expects to lower her mile record of 2:08½.

The President has referred the Oleomargarine bill to Attorney General Garland, and friends of this important measure are apprehensive that he will veto it upon constitutional grounds.

In the libel suit of Cyrus W. Field against James Golden Bennett, the Sheriff's awarded the plaintiff $25,000 damages. The defendant was also condemned to pay all the costs of suit.

Henry Sweeney, aged 15, was arrested in New York Sunday night when about to jump from the Brooklyn bridge. He had been reading of Brodie's successful attempt, and was anxious to imitate him.

Prince Fushimi, of Japan, and suite, arrived in New York Sunday night. After a week's stay in the East the party will hurry on to San Francisco. They hope to sail for Japan on August 11th.

The arrival of ex-Senator Thurman in Washington revives the rumor that the President has offered him Garland's place. Thurman's friends say that he would not think of becoming Attorney-General.

The Senate Committee on Finance agreed by a majority vote yesterday morning to report the Morrison surplus resolution with an amendment. The text of the resolution remains as it came from the House.

An official statement shows that the debt due by the Pacific railroad to the Government up to the present time is $112,447,748 97; of this over 47,000,000 is back interest which has been paid by the United States.

As will be seen by a letter in our local columns, Theo. Winters has withdrawn from the political arena and will not be a candidate for Governor. He gives as his reasons that his other business demands too much of his attention.

The New York World's Washington correspondent says that it is believed that Public Printer Rounds will tender his resignation this week, to take effect when Congress adjourns, and that he will be succeeded by General Rogers, of Buffalo.

Twenty-eight Senators, under the lead of Blair, of New Hampshire, have agreed that no portion of the money appropriated in the inauguration of the Bartholdi statue shall be expended on "spirituous liquors, or tobacco, or stimulants, or narcotics in any form." This is exceedingly satisfactory.

BROWNED NEAR ANTIOCH.

The Sacramento Bee of Monday has the following: Near Antioch, in Contra Costa county, on yesterday, occurred one of the saddest affairs we have been called upon to chronicle for many a day. Miss Tot Cutter, a highly-respected and well-known young lady of San Francisco, but who has spent much of her life in this city, was visiting at Los Medanos ranch, owned by her uncle, L. L. Robinson, the capitalist and mining man. During the day the young lady donned her bathing suit and started for the river to take a swim. Mrs. Cutter, L. L. Robinson and a number of young people accompanied her and stood on the river bank. Miss Cutter had not been in the river but a short time when she was seized with cramps and began struggling in the water. A young man named James Wood, an employe of Robinson's, sprang to her rescue, was seized by the young lady, and both were drowned before the eyes of the horror-stricken spectators. Both bodies were soon recovered, and that of Miss Cutter has been brought here for interment. The funeral will take place to-morrow at 2 p. m., from the residence of Llewellyn Williams, at Tenth and II streets. Miss Cutter was a niece of Mrs. L. Williams, of this city, and was an accomplished young lady, being prominent in society in this city and at the Bay.

Warning to Sight Seers.

A Boston dispatch says: The great snow arch in Tuckerman's ravine, 3,000 feet below the summit of Mount Washington, and just to the southeast of it, fell at 2 o'clock on Saturday afternoon, and instantly killed Sewall Faunce, the fifteen-year-old son of a Boston lawyer, who has an office on School street, and severely injured Miss Pierce, of New Bedford. The snow arch is one of the great attractions of Tuckerman's ravine, and is visited by hundreds of people every summer. The warm weather caused it to melt rapidly, and its fall is from two to three weeks earlier than any time in the last ten years. It is exceedingly dangerous for parties to go under it later in the season, and only a year or so ago it fell with a terrific crash within a few minutes after a party had passed under and out of it.

Congress is rapidly pushing the necessary legislation of the session, and will be ready to adjourn on the last of the present week, or not later than Monday, the 2nd of August. The latter date is fixed by a good many, for the reason that it is customary for Congress to adjourn its long session on the first day of the week, this being done for the purpose of enabling the enrolling clerks an opportunity, during Sunday, to bring up their work, which always accumulates at the close of the session. It is quite likely, from the present rate of disposing of appropriation bills, they will have finally passed Congress before the end of the week.

Monday afternoon Assemblyman McJunkins introduced a concurrent resolution, requesting Gov. Stoeneman to declare August 3d and 4th legal holidays, in honor of the Grand Army Encampment. August 3rd falls on Tuesday next, the day both Houses are required to vote for Senator in joint Assembly, and if this resolution is brought up the intentions of the Assembly on the Senatorial question will probably be disclosed. If it is intended to elect a Senator the resolution must be amended or defeated.

A pretty well authenticated story is in circulation at Marysville that a company of Chinese miners at Peach Flat unearthed a nugget of gold on Monday last weighing 158 pounds, and valued at $35,000. If true, it ranks third in size of the big nuggets found in the world, and the second largest in California. The claim is situated near Howland Flat, Sierra County, and was purchased recently by the Chinamen for $300.

The Chinese Government has issued an edict to its subjects discouraging the use of opium among its people. The government is alarmed at the growth of the habit and steps will be taken to stop the importation of the drug. No student will be allowed to have a degree who is addicted to the use of the drug.

BISHOP WHITAKER.—The Virginia Chronicle says: At the close of the morning services at St. Paul's Church Sunday, Bishop Whitaker announced to the congregation that he had decided to accept the Assistant Bishopric of the Diocese of Pennsylvania, to which he was recently elected. He explained the difference between a missionary and diocesan Bishopric, and briefly reviewed his labors here during the past twenty years. During the recital the congregation was deeply moved and the Bishop himself visibly affected. He stated in conclusion that with the consent of the Diocese of Pennsylvania he would act as provisional Bishop for this diocese and visit Nevada annually, remaining among his former parishioners a month or six weeks. The Bishop will leave here the latter part of September to attend the convention to assemble in Chicago in October, at the close of which he will proceed to Philadelphia and enter upon his duties in the diocese.

INFORMATION DESIRED.—Mrs. Annie Miller, No. 88 West Van Buren street, Chicago, Illinois, writes, asking the whereabouts of her husband, Charles Miller, who left her on the 5th of last May, in search of employment, and has not been heard of since. She says he worked for Alexander, the dairyman, in Virginia city, some thirteen years ago. Any one who will inform her of his whereabouts will confer a favor on a much distressed woman and three children.

AN OLD RENOITE COMING.—It is expected that the Rev. C. L. Fisher will preach in the Baptist Church next Sunday morning and evening. Mr. Fisher is the institutor of the Baptist Church at Reno and is at present a resident of Red Bluff, California. He is expected to arrive here on Friday, and further notice will be given of the services here Sunday.

ANOTHER ONE GONE.—In a China row at Lovelock, Sunday evening, Ah Sang stabbed Tee Ham in the side twice cutting a rib in two and penetrating the stomach from the effects of which he died Monday morning. The murderer was arrested, and bound over for the next Humboldt Grand Jury.

DISMISSED.—The case of Rosa Thomas, for incest, in the Justice Court of Virginia City, was dismissed Monday, on account of her not being of age. She was held in $1,000 bonds to appear as a witness at the trial of her father, set for August 30th.

Miss Cleveland's first issue of the Literary life of Chicago, will be the August number, and it will contain six editorials from her pen. Her new novel entitled "Washington Life, Rex, and ex-Rex," will not be finished until September.

A lady who had entered suit against the Illinois Central Railroad for the recovery of $10,000 for personal injuries and loss of baggage sustained in an accident on the road, has just been ruled out of Court. She acknowledged that she was riding on a pass at the time of the accident, and the Court ruled that, "as she had paid nothing for her transportation she could not collect damages."

A WHEELMAN'S WORK.

There was a man stopping at the Western Hotel, Sacramento, says the Bee, who has performed a feat on the bicycle which probably has never before been attempted in the United States. The man's name is G. B. Thayer, and he resides at Vernon, Conn. He arrived in Sacramento Sunday, on his bicycle, from Milton, Calaveras county, and presented a sight that attracted considerable attention. His hair was very long, his shoes worn out, and his clothes were nearly worn in shreds, but he was a picture of good health. A Bee man heard of the wheelman, and had a talk with him. He said that he had left his home in Connecticut on the 10th of April on his bicycle for San Francisco, and rode continuously, with the exception of a few days rest, to Salt Lake. Having heard of the Humboldt desert, he came to the conclusion that he would not attempt to go over it on his machine. He took the cars at the Mormon city and reached Sacramento July 13th, and from there went to the Calaveras Big Trees and Yosemite Valley, returning Sunday at 5 p. m. During his travels he was a subject of much curiosity; He has an indicator attached to his bicycle that shows he has ridden 3,036 miles since he left home. He left Tuesday morning for San Francisco, and from there will go East by the Northern Pacific Railroad. He intends to go through the Yellowstone Park on his machine.

NEW YORK, July 28.—A. M.—J. Beavor Webb, designer of the English cutters Genesta and Galatea, arrived Tuesday from England. He did not think it strange that the Galatea had not arrived at Marblehead, as Lieutenant Ifenn intended to run down by the Azores, and loitering there, if agreeable. Besides, the weather has been bad. He thinks the Galatea may not be sighted for several days yet.

The attention of Colonel Fred Grant having been called to the recent gossip alleging that there were serious disagreements between Mr. and Mrs. Sartoris, declares that, as far as he is aware, there is not a particle of truth in it.

The Republican caucus Wednesday afternoon resolved to elect a United States Senator to succeed Senator Heart, recently appointed by Governor Stoneman to fill the unexpired term of the late Senator Miller.

The case of J. H. Harlan for the killing of Everett L. Craft, at Woodland, was given to the jury at 9:30 o'clock Wednesday morning, after being on trial 72 days, the longest of any criminal case in California.

The House Tuesday, by a vote of 174 to 65, decided to substitute the House bill for that of the Senate forfeiting the Northern Pacific land grant. As thus amended the bill was passed by 185 to 48.

A telegram from Omaha, dated Wednesday morning, states that over 3,200 members of the Grand Army have passed that point up to date, bound for San Francisco via the Union Pacific Route.

It was reported by cable that George, the son of Jay Gould, would soon marry Miss Kingdon, an actress of Daly's Company. In an interview Jay Gould denies the story in toto.

Secretary Lamar has written a letter to Commissioner Sparks, in which he directs him not to cancel land entries on the unsubstantiated reports of agents.

The hot weather is beginning to tell on the California members of Congress. Morrow is sick in bed, and Henley is scarcely able to be about.

Senator Fair commenced Tuesday to lay a horse-car track along Broadway, Oakland, south of Seventh street, to run to the water front.

AT A STAND STILL.

Carson Appeal.

The anti-Chinese movement in this locality is practically at a stand still. No white men are coming here to look for work, and no Chinaman are leaving the city to go elsewhere. The Mongolians are just at present as unmolested as they were a year ago. They play, sell vegetables, wash shirts, and their stolid faces have ceased to wear the troubled, anxious look that marked them a few months ago.

The Chinese, who can easily see through a hole in a mill-stone, figure out the situation that whites are now fighting among themselves.

It is with regret that the Appeal notes this State of affairs. Hundreds of well-meaning citizens of Carson made an earnest attempt to rid this county of the undesirable presence of the Mongolian. Old animosities were buried, and these men, irrespective of party, put their shoulders to the wheel to work for the common good. It was then that the battle against the Chinese was effective, and they left the city daily, never to return. The League stood solid and compact and was waging successful warfare. In the midst of this the fire-brand of politics fell into the League, and for some weeks past there has been little else but wrangling and trouble.

Men who believed in conservative solution of a vexed question, held aloof; neighbors grew suspicious of each other and the trouble engendered in the League has crept into politics and business. One half of the town has begun to boycott the other half, and as a result more money is now being sent abroad for goods than ever before. The whites are to-day sending more money away from this city than the Chinese were in the habit of sending. This state of affairs means a drain upon the resources of the town; a depreciation of real estate and dull times, not for individual firms but for everybody. The primary object of the anti-Chinese movement was to displace the Chinese and give the positions occupied by them to white people. Enough Chinese were compelled to leave here to give a place to every man and woman who wanted to work. When the League reached this point it should have been content with its good work and waited until there were more whites who were desirous of employment.

The League made a mistake when it passed this law and attempted to compel people to discharge Chinese when it was impossible to fill their places with white help. The pressure in this direction caused a feeling against the League because of its dictatorial attitude. There are men who you can lead by argument who will not be coerced. There are plenty of men who have never employed Chinese and do not now employ them who are pointed out as belonging to the "pro-Chinese crowd."

There is not a corporal's guard in this county to-day who believes in the plan now adopted by the League to get them out.

The boycott against the Chinese, so far as ceasing to patronize them, is an excellent method; but a boycott against taxpaying, law-abiding citizens, who have for years assisted in developing this country, is repugnant to every thinking man's ideas of fairness. It only engenders bitterness of feeling, strife and discord in all ways detrimental to the interests of the city.

Let every one bear in mind that no man has any right to attempt to run a business upon which he does not pay taxes, nor can he drive any American citizen out of a country that he (the said American citizen) is helping to develop.

Prospective Telegraph Competition.

NEW YORK, July 28th.—Extensive connections are soon to be established between the lines of the Commercial Cable Company and the Canadian Pacific Telegraph Company. Work has begun which promises to furnish direct communication from Europe to the Pacific coast and intermediate points. A wire will be run from Richford, just below the Canadian line in Vermont, to Montreal. The second connection is at Morristown, New York, from which a line has been run across the St. Lawrence to Brockville, Canada, where it joins the Canadian Pacific. One line will run from St. Paul to Winnipeg, Manitoba, and another from Salt Lake to Medicine Hat Station, on the Canadian Pacific, in British Columbia. The western connection will join at New Westminster, in British Columbia, and run to San Francisco. At the office of the Commercial Cable Company, Mr. Ward, Secretary, said yesterday that Mr. Mackay and several of his friends had personally undertaken the construction of this line. It will pass through Portland, Oregon, and Sacramento. The promised connections will pass over 4,000 miles of territory in addition to the distance traversed by the Canadian Pacific lines. The work of construction will take about six months.

FREIGHTING FROM RENO.

Carson Tribune.

It is reported by parties that ought to know whereof they speak that certain Carson merchants have concluded to form a teaming association for the purpose of hauling freight from Reno to their Carson stores, and this with a view to boycotting the local road. The question to be considered is how will their customers be benefited by the change, for most assuredly we had to pay far more for goods before the railroads were built than now, and people must recollect that the merchants do not now nor ever did pay any freight whatever, that part of the transaction devolving on the consumer.

It has not yet transpired whether or not it is the intention of these speculative gentlemen to clean out the C. & C. R. R., but it may be presumed that their animosity towards one road would obtain as to the other, and it will stand the two local corporations in hand to prepare for whatever may befall them. One merchant, a north-ender, has had very many years' experience in freight by wagons, in fact did an immense and profitable business during the early days of the State, but the other is comparatively a neophyte in mercantile affairs, and to our notion had better let railroads alone. The days of freight hauling are past and the new era of railroad convenience is too highly appreciated for any but millionaires to oppose, besides the fact must be recognized that the sovereign people want and must have them.

It is surprising to what ridiculous an extent the overbearing pride of some men will lead them to, especially in their older days, and how suddenly their tactics may be changed; how from sycophants to a corporation they suddenly arrive at the absurd conclusion that they ought to be looked on as masters; but every day shows out in his true light someone heretofore held in some degree of estimation, and "when he falls, he falls like Phanton, never to rise again" in the regard of respectable men.

This paper owes the railroad companies nothing but respect for the benefit they have been to the town, county and State, and has always been first to denounce whatever seemed wrong in their actions, but the man who opposes railroad enterprise in these days is either a knave or a fool, for without them the State would fall back to its condition of twenty years ago, and indeed to a far worse one. The railroads are to the whole State what the sunlight and irrigating means are to agricultural pursuits, and every person should rather attempt to foster than to place a stumbling block in the path of their progression, for this State needs very many new roads, and will continue to call for them as new and rich discoveries are made in mining districts remote from the means of transportation.

Postal Matters.

The number of postoffices established during the last fiscal year was 3482, an increase during the year of 1861. The number of postoffices discontinued during the year was 1120. The whole number of postoffices on June 30, 1886, was 53,614, an increase during the year of 2363. The number of Presidential offices is 2265, an increase during the year of 32. The number of fourth-class offices is 51,349, an increase during the year of 2326. Appointments have been made during the year as follows: On resignations and commissions expired, 9112; increase during the year, 2900; on removals and suspensions, 9566; increase during the year, 8756; on deaths of postmasters, 597; increase during the year, 175; on the establishment of new postoffices, 3482; increase during the year, 1861; total number of appointments made during the year, 22,747; increase during the year, 13,200. The total number of money-order offices at the close of the year was 7356, a net increase of 227 over the previous year.

Tilden Survives Them All.

The Jacksonville Herald says:

John Kelly thought Tilden too old and frail to run a second time as President. John Kelly is dead. The stalwart Chandler wrested the Presidency from Tilden. Chandler is dead. Grant, it is said, would have arrested and imprisoned Tilden if he had attempted to claim the office he had been elected to. Grant is dead. Hancock was chosen as a more likely man to live through the Presidency than Tilden. Hancock is dead. Hendricks seemed to have a long life ahead of him as compared with the man at the head of the ticket. Hendricks is dead. Seymour, McClellan, all the old candidates are dead. Meanwhile, Tilden thinks there is nothing so invigorating as working away before the mast on his yacht.

Governor Warren, of Wyoming, has issued a proclamation relieving Missouri cattle from quarantine restrictions.

THE STATE FAIR.

From information received from the Secretary of the Nevada Agricultural Association it is understood that the State Fair at Reno this year will be much finer than ever before. Great interest is being taken by the business people of Reno, especially, as it will bring them a good return. Lyon county will, without doubt, be well represented. Last year not much interest was taken by our people, but they found that it was one of the best methods in the world to advertise the country and each county in it. This county has many mineral deposits, and could arrange a fine little cabinet for exhibition. She also has some of the finest stock and horses on the coast; these should also be placed on exhibition. Again our ranchers raise about the finest fruit and vegetables in the world, and, therefore, there should be an agricultural display. Take all these things together and Lyon county can send as good a general display to the Fair as any county in the State. By all means let it be done.—Lyon County Times.

Prohibition Egg-Nogg.

BOSTON, July 27.—By the overturning of a box of so-called eggs from a truck in Tremont street to-day, the latest method of smuggling whisky into Rhode Island was discovered. The truck contained cases holding 147 dozen eggs on the way from a liquor dealer to Newport. The eggs were common porcelain shells, such as sold for "nest-eggs." Each one contained about enough whisky for a good drink. They were filled through a small hole in the big end, and the hole was closed with a water-proof-cemented cloth of the same color as the egg. By chalking the eggs the little deception was complete.

The Sundry Civil Bill.

As it passed the Senate on Saturday night, the Sundry Civil Appropriation bill appropriates an aggregate of $24,418,375, or an increase of $3,106,850 over the amount appropriated by the bill as it came from the House. The items added by the Senate are $717,545 for public buildings, $510,700 for lighthouses, $18,652 for the coast survey and $176,590 on account of miscellaneous items.

STATE FAIR POSTERS.—The State Fair posters are up and attract considerable attention. They are the neatest posters ever tacked up in Nevada, and were lithographed in Cincinnati.

The largest represents four flying horses bunched at the finish. They are in colors and drawn with great spirit and effect. You can almost hear the cheers of the Reno backers of Winters' flyer as the horses clear the wire. The other poster is a beauty; it is headed by the immense head of a bull, but of what breed no one knows. The artist must have received orders to give all breeds a show. It has Durham horns, Holstein forehead, Devon cheeks and a Jersey nose. This sort of a bull's head ought to harmonize all tastes among the cattle breeders. The lower picture, printed in all the colors of the rainbow, shows a crowd of horny-fisted agriculturists surrounding a cattle exhibit and discussing the points of the animals. Reno with its beautiful landscapes shows up in the distance. The posters alone are worth double the price of admission.—Carson Appeal.
